After checking the facility, it was confirmed that Klocek was not in the building, but his truck was in the parking lot. At approximately 16:48, the offender was observed returning to the CNY Works parking area, being dropped off by another person.

Klocek initially gave them permission to search, but then he left the facility and walked into the parking lot without permission, started yelling at the staff. Klocek was instructed to remove himself from the parking lot and go into the facility, which he did, but he then continued to shout accusations at staff members. In the offender's vehicle, staff members found another cell phone and several sexually explicit magazines (these items are prohibited by the CCC).

*On June 17, 2006, charged with Conduct which disrupts or interferes with the security or orderly running of the institution. On this date the offender approached the monitor's station to talk with a staff member. Klocek told the monitor that he called his lawyer and the lawyer was "going to get you because you are telling my business." After the monitor entered the monitor station to begin writing the report, the offender disobeyed security rules and walked into an area he was not cleared to enter.
